

I WANT YOU TO BE HAPPY

From his own background, growing up in the country, and from his reading of the Gospels, one of St John Bosco's favourite images of Jesus is of the Good Shepherd. That is why today's first Reading is so appropriate. The Psalm and the second Reading both bring out the key message that Don Bosco had and still has for all his followers. There must be JOY and HAPPINESS in our following of Jesus. Finally in the Gospel, we are reminded of the great love of Jesus for children and young people. We are invited to model ourselves on him.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS

St John Bosco saw his ordination as a priest as an essential part of his calling to follow Jesus and work for young people. He wanted his "oratory" or youth club to be HOME, SCHOOL, PLAYGROUND and CHURCH for his young people. Through the Sacraments of Forgiveness and Holy Communion and through devotion to Mary, Help of Christians, he saw the way to happiness in this life and the next. Please pray for priests

This is at the Cathedral at 3.00pm on Sunday 14th February. ARCHBISHOP KELLY

We have received the good news that Archbishop Kelly will be visiting our Pastoral Area and all our parishes during the course of this year. Please pray for God's blessing on us all as we prepare for this special time of grace. We will have meetings to help us prepare.

ST DOMINIC'S CLUB

Because it has been running at a significant loss for some time, the Archdiocesan Club Management are planning for St Dominic's Club to cease trading as from Sunday February 21st. We are sorry to lose this social amenity in our area and we will also suffer quite a significant loss in financial support for the parish.

We will need to plan how to move forward.

We will continue to support the Club staff during this time of change.

THE WEDNESDAY WORD Please continue to dedicate a few minutes on Wednesday evening to reading and reflecting on and praying about next Sunday's gospel. At the same time please pray for God's blessing on our Infant and Junior Schools and the families of all the children.

The next two meetings will be on Thursday 4th and 11th February, 2010 at 7.00pm
